

Erja Joukamo-Ampuja

CV in Brief

Erja Joukamo-Ampuja graduated from Sibelius-Academy 1987 making her Master of Music-degree with horn and 2010 the Licentiate of Music –degree with a research about musician’s creativity and improvisation. Joukamo-Ampuja has been a member of the Finnish Radio Symphony Orchestra during years 1984-2001, now being a Senior Lecturer of Horn in Sibelius Academy.

She is a well-known lecturer and a teacher, giving master classes, lectures and workshops in Scandinavia, Europe, USA and Australia. She is also an Adjunct Professor of Queensland Conservatoire, Griffith University, Brisbane since 2014. In other than teaching horn, Erja Joukamo-Ampuja has specialized also in physical and mental practicing and different practicing techniques. She is an active researcher and teacher in Music Medicine field in Finland. She is also giving creative improvisation- workshops to improve classical musician’s interpretation skills.

www.erjajoukamoampuja.fi

